Update

August 2011

Kazakhstan Team

The 14 members of the Kazakhstan Team have arrived back safely. The Tien Shan School sent messages of thanks we would like to share some!

Dear MMM team,
Thank you so very much for all the incredible work you have done during your time here, helping the school in such practical ways and saving the school thousands of dollars. May God continue to work both in you and through you as you use your gifts for His glory.

Thank you for caring about Central Asia. Ya'll have been such a blessing to us and our school. May God bless you for all that you have done. Thanks,

Dear MMM team,
THANK YOU so very much!!! We were deeply touched by your servant heart in doing what you said, showing love in action. God bless you!

E. T. News

In July we had two Encouragement Tours to two different leprosy villages. The first team of 11 people spent the weekend scraping, painting, sharing with the residents and playing some games which they all enjoyed. For some members of this team it was their first experience of an ET having heard about it at the Hong Kong Association of Christian Missions event, I believe I can fly. Team photo to the right.

The second Encouragement Tour was a team of 24 from a church that had heard of MMM and joined this tour. Praise God for this kind of enthusiasm for serving! Team photo below.
