Fight Alongside, Meet the Difficulties

MM

Newsletter 1, 2019

As struggling as some other organizations, a succession gap has occurred in MMMHK team since 2019. It is hoped that the members of Board of Directors can close this gap by stepping forward and starting with the leadership team.

MMMHK has received many project enquires in the past few years. However, due to the deficit in manpower or resources, we were unable to offer help in those projects. But from the bright side, we lined up various organizations to know each other, build up relationships, networks and partnerships. ◦

On the morning of 19th January, a meeting was convened by MMMHK :

- 1) NFO, Natural Farming Organization (Former New Heart Garden, Pastor Yeung). It mainly promotes natural agriculture , raises awareness to land rehabilitation and encourage people to be good stewards.
- 2) The CEO Foundation (Sister Choi). It mainly serves the disadvantaged community. The latest project is to train dogs.
- 3) Promised Land (Brother Wong and his wife). It makes people closer to nature mainly through planting and some theme training.

Fight Alongside, Meet the Difficulties

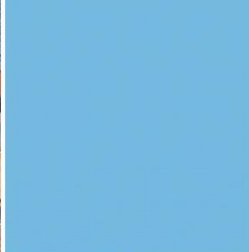

MMMHK Newsletter 1, 2019

Besides representatives from the above organizations, Board of Directors of MMMHK, Andrew Wong, Charles Lo, Samuel Chow, T K Tung and Betty Fung as well as administrator Lolita Chan also attended the meeting. Everyone shared with each other how to receive vision, move forward, develop and overcome challenges of the ministries. In the face of difficulties although, we thank God that we serve in different fields but meet each other. We see that lack of manpower and financial support that hurdles the ministry development are common factors of the challenge in the future.

We all know that it is hard to see the change in a short-period of time. But with the faith we have in God, at the end of meeting, we prayed together and committed all the needs before the hand of God who have grace and mercy on us. We believe He is the One who leads. And we look forward to seeing each other again.
